- Working Day means any day (excluding Saturday and Sunday) on which the banks in London are open for business.

Product Features:

The 32 Day Notice Account is a deposit account with the key features detailed below.

Key Features:

- Accounts only available in Sterling (GBP).
- Interest is calculated daily by reference to the Bank of England ("BoE") Bank Rate.
- We will agree with you the Interest Rate that will apply to your Account at account opening. This Interest Rate is linked to the BoE Bank Rate and will track the BoE Bank Rate, which is subject to change. Any changes to the rate of interest resulting from changes in the BoE Bank Rate will be applied to your Account on the Working Day the new Interest Rate becomes effective.
- Interest is calculated daily. This is based on the Account Balance and Interest Rate. This is applied to your Account daily (unless otherwise agreed).
- Lloyds Bank may change the rate of interest, independently of any changes to the BoE Bank Rate. Where this change is not to your advantage, we will provide you 14 days' notice and the new Interest Rate will be applied to your Account on the next Working Day following expiry of the 14 days' notice. Where this change is to your advantage, the new Interest Rate may be applied to your Account immediately without notice.
- To withdraw funds or close your Account you must give Us Notice in accordance with the Notice Period.
- If you close or make a withdrawal from your Account, the rate of interest applied to the funds to be withdrawn will be the Reversion Rate. The Reversion Rate will be fixed for the duration of the Notice Period and will apply from the date we receive your Notice. Interest on the withdrawal amount will be applied at the end of the Notice Period.
- If you have access to Online for Business you can view and service your Notice Account online.

Benefits:

- The Interest Rate you receive on your Account Balance will increase if the BoE Bank Rate increases.

Risks:

- Your funds are committed for a minimum period of 32 days. Your financial position must allow you to be able to cover any cash flow requirements you may have whilst the Notice Period elapses. Your Account cannot be closed except where Notice has been given in accordance with the Notice Period.
- The Interest Rate you receive on your Account Balance will decrease if the BoE Bank Rate decreases.

Deposits/ Withdrawals:

- In order to open a 32 Day Notice Account, deposit instructions must be given by telephone to your Lloyds Bank representative or via our website www.lloydsbank.com.
- In order to open a 32 Day Notice Account, you will need to open or have a nominated account. Your nominated account does not need to be held with Lloyds Bank.
- Further deposits may be made into an existing 32 Day Notice Account up to the Maximum Account Balance. It is possible to open more than one 32 Day Notice Account.
- Written confirmation of account opening will be sent to you in respect of each 32 Day Notice Account opened. The confirmation will confirm the Interest Rate, Principal and the Value Date.
- The Account will operate and interest will start accruing to you from the agreed Value Date. You must ensure that the agreed amount of funds to be deposited in to your Account is received by Us on the agreed Value Date. A delay in the receipt of funds may result in a loss of interest on your Account.
- To close or withdraw funds from the Account, you must give Us at least the minimum Notice Period.
- Any Notice to withdraw funds or to close your Account must be given by telephone (unless otherwise agreed) to your Lloyds Bank representative. The Notice must include the Working Day you want to withdraw the funds and the amount you wish to withdraw (subject to the Minimum Withdrawal Amount).
- Upon receiving your Notice We will send you a confirmation which will detail the amount to be withdrawn, the Reversion Rate and the date the withdrawal will be paid to your nominated account. The Reversion Rate will be fixed for the duration of the Notice Period and will apply from the Working Day we receive your Notice. Interest on the funds to be withdrawn will be paid at the end of the Notice Period.
- On expiry of the Notice Period, Lloyds Bank will transfer the amount to be withdrawn to your nominated account.

Important Information

- Lloyds Bank will only accept, and agree to open, a 32 Day Notice Account once it has received all necessary documentation and its internal checks have been completed to its satisfaction. Lloyds Bank reserves the right to reject an application.
- Terms and Conditions apply which you should read carefully. These can be found at www.lloydsbank.co.uk/generalterms & www.lloydsbank.co.uk/cbmarkets-deposit-terms
- You are responsible for ensuring that payment is made to the relevant revenue authorities for any tax liability due in respect of your Account. However, We reserve the right to withhold tax from any amount that We pay to you. We may be required to report from time to time to regulatory or other authorities, details of any information We hold in respect of your Account. We reserve the right to do so without any further notice to you.
- You can cancel your Account within 14 days of opening the Account with Us without incurring any additional charges. To cancel your Account, you must telephone your Lloyds Bank representative within 14 days of confirmation of your Account having been opened. On cancellation of your Account, any monies deposited to the Account will be returned to you, less any interest that you may have already received. After the 14 days, the Account can only be closed by providing Notice in accordance with the Notice Period set out above.

Please contact your Lloyds Bank representative if you have any queries regarding the information in this factsheet.
