

Customer Statement Message - Inward

Contains additional terms and conditions for the Customer Statement Message - Inward service that you receive from us.

1. Meaning of words we use

- Customer Account The bank account(s) held at the Forwarding Bank that you choose from time to time.
- Customer Information Balances and/or statements relating to the Customer Account.
- Customer Statement Message (Inward) (also known as an MT940/camt.053) An electronic account statement that is an international standard developed by SWIFT for the paperless transmission of account information.
- Forwarding Bank The bank that will send the MT940/camt.053 to us.
- Service The service provided under these Product Specific Conditions.
- SWIFT The Society for Worldwide Interbank Financial Telecommunication that supplies secure messaging services and interface software to wholesale financial entities.

2. What do you need to read to understand your agreement with us relating to the Service?

These Product Specific Conditions are just one part of the agreement between you and us relating to the Service.

You also need to read:

- The General Conditions
- The authority you have given to us
- Your application form for the Service
- The Account Charges & Processing Times brochure
- The charges schedule relating to the Service

3. What happens if the documents that make up the agreement say different things?

If these Product Specific Conditions say one thing, and the General Conditions say another, these Product Specific Conditions will apply.

4. When will we start providing the Service to you?

We will start providing the Service to you on the date we agree with you in writing.

If we need information from you to provide the Service to you, you will provide that information to us. You will also make sure that the Forwarding Bank works with us so that, when we require it, the Customer Information can be provided by the Forwarding Bank in a form that is acceptable under SWIFT rules and regulations.

5. How does the Service work?

Where we receive the Customer Statement Message (Inward) from Forwarding Banks, we will update your internet banking with your balance and/or statements relating to the Customer Accounts.

6. Which rules are relevant to the way the Service works?

The SWIFT rules and regulations apply to the Service.

7. What charges will you pay for the Service?

The charges are set out in the charges schedule for the Service. This is unless we agree different charges with you.

We will send you an invoice monthly and you must pay that invoice by direct debit.

8. What are we responsible for relating to the Service?

We will not be bound by any representation or warranty given by our employees or agents in connection with the Service, unless it has been confirmed in writing.

We display the Customer Information from the Forwarding Bank to you. We do not have any control over the Customer Information they send to us. If that Customer Information turns out to be inaccurate or incomplete, we will not be responsible for any money you lose.

We will not be responsible for any loss, damage, injury, interruption, delay or non-performance relating to the Service, except when it is directly caused by our fraud, wilful default or negligence.

9. When can we suspend or end the Service?

The General Conditions set out information about closure and suspension of accounts and services, but there are some additional things you need to know about this Service.

We may suspend or end the Service immediately if any financial institution or network operator that we use to provide the Service is no longer willing to provide their services to us. This means we cannot continue to provide the Service to you.

Tell us what you think of this communication.

We won't ask for any personal information in this survey.
