Part I – Important Information

A. About us

1. Introduction

These Delegated Reporting Terms (the “Terms”) explain how Lloyds Bank plc (“Lloyds Bank”) will provide you with delegated reporting services and set out the terms and conditions that apply. These Terms explain what you can expect from us and what we ask of you.

We have arranged these Terms in a way that we hope will make it easier for you to find what is relevant to you. To help you locate the section you are looking for, these Terms contain:

- a contents page to help you navigate to the relevant section when you need it; and
- highlighted key information within these.

We hope these mechanisms will be helpful to you, however please note that there is no substitute for reading this document and any ancillary documentation provided to you in full. You must ensure that you have read and understand these Terms in their entirety before engaging in our delegated reporting services. If you have any questions or require further information from us please contact your Lloyds Bank representative.

2. Who are we?

Lloyds Bank is part of the Lloyds Banking Group (“LBG”) which comprises Lloyds Banking Group plc and its subsidiaries, associates and affiliated companies.

Our registered address is 25 Gresham Street, London EC2V 7HN and we are registered in England and Wales under no. 2065.

LBG has been required by legislation to conduct banking activities through separate banks – a “ringfenced bank” and a “non-ringfenced bank”. The aim of ringfencing is to protect the core retail banking services that customers rely on from risks associated with activities outside the ring fence. Core retail banking services are provided by a ringfenced bank, whereas investment and international banking activities are carried out by the non-ringfenced bank.

At LBG, our ring fenced and non-ringfenced banks are all wholly owned subsidiaries of Lloyds Banking Group plc:

- Lloyds Bank is a ringfenced bank; and
- Lloyds Bank Corporate Markets plc (“LBCM”) is the non-ringfenced bank.

Your contractual counterparty will be Lloyds Bank.

3. What service do we offer under these Terms?

Article 9 of Regulation (EU) 648/2012 of the European Parliament and of the Council on OTC Derivatives, Central Counterparties and Trade Repositories as it forms part of “retained EU law” as defined in the European Union (Withdrawal) Act 2018 (as amended from time to time) (“UK EMIR”) requires parties who conclude (or enter into), modify or terminate certain derivatives transactions to report specified data to a Trade Repository registered in accordance with Article 55 of UK EMIR or recognised in accordance with Article 77 of UK EMIR (such obligation, the “Reporting Requirement”).

UK EMIR permits an entity subject to the Reporting Requirement to delegate reporting to another entity. Lloyds Bank is willing to allow you to delegate reporting to it on the terms and conditions set out in these Terms.

Further information is available in the Regulatory Factsheet provided to you at onboarding.

Part II – Reporting Terms and Conditions

Key Information

- We will report data on derivative transactions entered into between us to a Trade Repository on your behalf in accordance with UK EMIR.
- You must provide us with certain information and ensure that information remains up to date.
- You can request direct access to the Trade Repository to view data reported on your behalf. If the Trade Repository does not agree to this we can provide you with details of the data.

1. Reporting

- 1.1 In respect of each derivative transaction between you and us that is subject to the Reporting Requirement (each a “Relevant Transaction”), you request and authorise us to submit and we agree to use our best efforts to submit (a) Counterparty Data and (b) Common Data (together, the “Reporting Data”), in each case by the deadline for reporting the Relevant Transaction as specified under Article 9 of UK EMIR (in each case, the Reporting Deadline) and to a Trade Repository. Further information is available in the Regulatory Factsheet provided to you at onboarding.
- 1.2 We will report such Common Data to the Trade Repository as we, in good faith and in our discretion, consider to represent accurately the Relevant Transaction. We will report the Counterparty Data in relation to you in respect of each Relevant Transaction based on information that you have provided to us in the Regulatory Questionnaire or that we otherwise hold in respect of you, as determined by us in good faith and in our discretion. It is your responsibility to ensure you have an up-to-date Legal Entity Identifier to enable us to represent accurately the Relevant Transaction.
- 1.3 You will notify us promptly, and in any event before executing any subsequent Relevant Transaction, of any change to the Counterparty Data, including any change to your Legal Entity Identifier or your UK EMIR client classification as soon as possible at CB.DFEMIRClassificationTeam@LloydsBanking.com. We will report the revised Counterparty Data in respect of any Relevant Transaction executed more than ten (10) Business Days (or such shorter period as is reasonably practicable) following such notification of the change.
- 1.4 If we do not receive all required information to comply with your obligation under the Reporting Requirement before the Reporting Deadline, you acknowledge that we cannot comply with our obligations under these Terms. Where we do not have sufficient information to perform our reporting obligation or information provided to us is either incomplete or inaccurate we may, at our sole discretion, choose not to report Reporting Data.
- 1.5 In respect of each Relevant Transaction, if we fail to report Reporting Data by the Reporting Deadline pursuant to these Terms or otherwise, then you acknowledge that you are nonetheless entitled to report the relevant Reporting Data in relation to you to a Trade Repository or to appoint a Reporting Delegate to make such report on your behalf.
- 1.6 You will not have direct access to the Reporting Data held at the Trade Repository pursuant to these Terms. However, if you request, we will use reasonable endeavours to arrange direct access to the Trade Repository provided that (a) the Trade Repository may in its sole discretion determine whether access is granted to you and (b) access will be on such terms between you and the Trade Repository as the Trade Repository shall deem necessary or desirable. If you do not have direct access, we will use our reasonable endeavours to make available to you details of the Reporting Data held at the Trade Repository, on Business Days between the hours of 09.00 and 17.00 hours (London time) but we do not guarantee that it will be available continuously during this time.
