We will tell you about these benefits packages when you apply to open the Account. The benefits packages (including any related charges that may be debited from the Account) will be governed by separate terms and conditions. Depending on the type of benefit, we will give you details of the separate terms and conditions when you complete your Application Form or the third-party supplier will issue them to you directly.

International Account Conditions

These conditions apply to accounts opened before 28 November 2014.

These conditions have been updated to reflect the changes that took effect from 29 March 2019 and from 1 August 2022. Since you received the original conditions when you opened your account, we have issued a Customer Relationship Agreement (in each of 2014, 2016 and 2019) and many of the general conditions that apply to personal bank accounts and some related services are now covered by the Customer Relationship Agreement instead of by the conditions below. These Account Conditions should therefore be read alongside the Lloyds Bank Corporate Markets plc Customer Relationship Agreement (for accounts which until 1 August 2022 were held with Lloyds Bank (International Services) Limited). Please contact us if you have any queries or require any more information.

Section 2

Terms and conditions for the Sterling Accounts, US Dollar Accounts and Euro Accounts

In this Section, references to:

- i. Sterling (£) apply where the account held is a Sterling Account;
- ii. US Dollars (US$) apply where the account held is a US Dollar Account and
- iii. references to Euro (€) apply where the account is a Euro Account

2.1 The International Account requires a minimum of £1,500, US$1,500 or €1,500 (depending on the currency in which the Account is held) to be deposited within 6 weeks of Account opening. Where an application is made to open more than one International Account, a minimum of £1,500, US$1,500 or €1,500 (as appropriate) must be deposited into any one of the opened Accounts within 6 weeks of Account opening.

2.2 The International Premier Account requires a minimum of £100,000, US$150,000 or €150,000 (depending on the currency in which the Account is held) to be both deposited within 6 weeks of Account opening and maintained as a credit balance at all times while the Account remains open. Where an application is made to open more than one International Premier Account, a minimum of £100,000, US$150,000 or €150,000 (as appropriate) must be deposited into at least one of the opened Accounts within 6 weeks of Account opening and maintained as a credit balance at all times while that Account and any other International Premier Account remains open. All International Premier Accounts are subscription fee-free while your Account meets the above criteria, but we reserve the right to charge a monthly subscription fee in the event that the criteria are not met.

2.3 Sterling funds will be converted into US Dollars or Euro at a rate of exchange determined by us on the day they are credited to the US Dollar Account or Euro Account.

- 2.4 Deposits in excess of US$100,000 or €100,000 or currency equivalent into the Account should be effected by telegraphic transfer, which can be made from your local bank, anywhere in the world (subject to local regulations). All major currencies may be sent and your funds will be converted to US Dollars or Euro automatically upon receipt.
- 2.5 You can find out the current interest rates for your account and any applicable charges by telephoning our International PhoneBank service or by visiting our website at lloydsbank.com/international. We can vary the rates at any time. The new rates will come into force as soon as we display them on our website.
- 2.6 We calculate interest on a daily basis on cleared credit balances.
- 2.7 We pay monthly interest on the 9th of each month on the Sterling Account. If the interest payment date is not a Working Day, interest is paid on the next Working Day. Interest on the US Dollar and Euro Accounts is paid half yearly on the 31st of May and the 30th of November.
- 2.8 You can ask us to credit the interest to the Account, or to another account in your name at the same branch.
- 2.9 If you ask us to collect or negotiate cheques or bills payable abroad, any cheques or bills deposited which are in a currency other than Sterling or Euro and are drawn on a bank outside the UK Euro clearing system will remain uncleared for a period of up to 30 days from receipt and may be subject to local law and banking practice.
- 2.10 We may be called upon to reimburse a correspondent bank abroad for irregular items, such as forged endorsements or material alterations, discovered after the cheque or bill has apparently been paid. This liability can remain outstanding for at least six years. We will maintain a full right of recourse against you in those cases, as well as any recourse we have for any cheque or bill which is returned unpaid for normal banking reasons. Each collection will be subject to the International Chamber of Commerce's Uniform Rules for Collection. We are not liable for any loss, damage or delay which is not directly due to our own negligence or default.
- 2.11 If more than one person is named in the Application we will open all the Accounts you have requested on the Application as joint Accounts. (Please complete a separate form if you want us to open any accounts in the name of just one of you).
- A joint Account means that both of you are separately responsible for keeping to the terms of the Account. If either of you does not keep to them, we can take action against either or both of you singly or together. For example, we can take action to recover the debt from either or both of you.
 - We may give any information about the Account to either of you.
 - Either of you will be able to withdraw any money in the Account or obtain overdrafts (which may be without the other's knowledge), even if, as a result, the Account becomes overdrawn or an existing overdraft is increased. We will not be obliged to make any enquiries about the purpose of any transactions.
- 2.12 In the case of joint Accounts, you request and authorise us, until receipt by us of notice in writing to the contrary from any one of you, to:
- honour and debit to any Account in your name all cheques and other payment instructions signed by any one of you. This instruction still applies if, as a result, the Account(s) become overdrawn or any existing overdraft is increased. You will be jointly and severally responsible to repay with interest any overdraft or joint loan we advance;
 - act on any request signed by any one of you to withdraw or deal with any property or securities which we may hold for you from time to time;
 - act in accordance with any instructions received from any one of you whether written, verbal or by telephone. For the avoidance of doubt this includes any payment instructions;
 - accept for the credit of your joint Account(s) payments we receive in the name of any one of you unless such credit is marked "sole account";
 - pay or deliver to or to the order of the survivor(s) of you in the event of the death of either or any one of you (as applicable) all money, securities, deeds, documents and all other property (including security boxes and their contents) whatsoever standing to the credit or held by you for any Account(s); and
 - act on any instructions given pursuant to this authority without making any enquiries as to why such instructions were given.
- 2.13 All correspondence must be directed to the contact details set out at Appendix 2 of the Customer Relationship Agreement.
- 2.14 An 'overdraft' is where we lend you money when you would not otherwise have available funds to make a payment out of your Account. The 'available funds' is the amount you can use to make payments out of your Account each day. This will be: (a) the cleared credit balance on your Account plus the amount of any Arranged Overdraft (the overdraft limit); less (b) the amount of card payments we have authorised but not yet taken from your Account.
- 2.15 When working out your available funds we do not include any regular or other payments that we are aware may be paid into your Account.
- 2.16 Overdrafts are always repayable 'on demand'. This means that we can ask you to repay your overdraft (and any interest or charges) at any time, even if we have agreed a period for the overdraft with you. We can also reduce your overdraft limit at any time. If we demand repayment or reduce your limit, this will usually be due to a change or anticipated change in your personal circumstances. If we can reasonably do so without prejudicing our interests, including our regulatory position, we will give you at least 30 days' notice before making the change.
- 2.17 An 'Arranged Overdraft' is an overdraft up to an agreed overdraft limit that we may agree to taking into account your personal circumstances, and which you arrange with us in advance so as to increase the available funds in your Account. Please note that an Arranged Overdraft is not normally available for the US Dollar Account and the Euro Account. We will send you a letter setting out the terms of any Arranged Overdraft, including how long the Arranged Overdraft will apply. If no period is specified in that letter, then your Arranged Overdraft will be for 12 months and we may at our discretion agree to keep renewing it for further periods, which will also be for 12 months unless we tell you otherwise.
- 2.18 If you try to make a payment out of your Account (for example, by card, Direct Debit or cheque) for which you do not have available funds, we will treat this as a request for an 'Unarranged Overdraft', or for an increase in your Unarranged Overdraft if you already have one, and will consider whether we agree to your request taking into Account your personal circumstances. We will not be liable to you if we do not agree to give you an Unarranged Overdraft or increased Unarranged Overdraft.
- 2.19 When your Account goes into Unarranged Overdraft (but not when we increase one you already have), we will write to tell you we have agreed to it and our charges for considering and agreeing to your request, but we will ignore any Unarranged Overdrafts which are repaid by the end of the day. We only provide Unarranged Overdrafts for a limited period and we will write to tell you when you must repay one. Your Unarranged Overdraft will in any case end as soon as you have available funds again in your Account (but this does not stop you requesting a new Unarranged Overdraft in future).
- 2.20 The amount you have to pay for an overdraft depends on whether it is an Arranged Overdraft or an Unarranged Overdraft. The interest rates and charges that apply are set out in our interest rates and money transfer charges guide, and on our website.
- 2.21 Where you do not have available funds to make a payment and we do not agree to your request for an Unarranged Overdraft or increased Unarranged Overdraft, you will not be able to make that payment. We will write to tell you we have declined your request, and our charges for considering the request, dealing with the other bank and telling you about this service.

- 2.22 If you have requested a Lloyds Bank Debit Card, the terms and conditions of the Lloyds Bank Debit Card apply. For full details, please see the Lloyds Bank Debit Card Terms and Conditions which will be sent to you with your debit card.
 - 2.23 You should be aware that if the email address you have provided is used by more than one member of your household, they may also obtain access to the emails that we send to you.
 - 2.24 You agree to pay the subscription fee for the Account(s).
 - 2.25 There may be additional charges for particular banking or other services we provide. For full information on our charges and interest please contact the International Banking Team.
 - 2.26 We can vary our subscription fee and other charges or introduce new ones by giving you 30 days' written notice.
 - 2.27 At any time we can require you to close the Account. We may do this without giving any reason, but we will normally give you 30 days' notice. We accept no liability for any loss or damage sustained by the Customer as a result of any such termination whether or not notice was given.

International Incentive Saver Account Conditions

No new International Incentive Saver Accounts may be opened, but existing accounts remain valid.

These conditions have been updated to reflect the changes that took effect from 29 March 2019 and from 1 August 2022. Since you received the original conditions when you opened your account, we have issued a Customer Relationship Agreement (in each of 2014, 2016 and 2019) and many of the general conditions that apply to personal bank accounts and some related services are now covered by the Customer Relationship Agreement instead of by the conditions below. For example, where the conditions below refer to the Payment Services Schedule, these are now covered by the Customer Relationship Agreement. These Account Conditions should therefore be read alongside the Lloyds Bank Corporate Markets plc Customer Relationship Agreement (for accounts which until 1 August 2022 were held with Lloyds Bank (International Services) Limited). Please contact us if you have any queries or require any more information.

- 3.3 Before opening your Account, we may take up references or otherwise satisfy ourselves of your and any other applicant's identity, source of funds and eligibility as an Account holder. We can refuse to open an Account or accept a deposit without giving any reason. You must immediately inform us in writing of any changes to the information you give to us in your application for the Account if your circumstances change. We are also required to verify your identity and source of funds from time to time as notified by us. By signing the Account application form you consent to us making all reasonable enquiries in relation to these requirements (which may include the disclosure of information about you to third parties). Our legal obligations may require us to delay, cancel payment and/or freeze your funds and we accept no responsibility or liability as a result of having to take such action. In certain circumstances we may not be permitted to tell you the reason for any such delay, cancellation or freezing of payment.

- 3.4 An application for an Account must be made using a valid application form, which is available by calling our International PhoneBank service or through our website at lloydsbank.com/international

- 4.4 Any interest earned on your Account (including any introductory bonus payable under condition 5.1 below) will be paid subject to the deduction of all applicable taxes, if any, at the appropriate rate. Subject always to conditions 3, 4, 5, 7 and 8, all interest will be added to your Account unless you tell us to add it to another Lloyds Bank account held in your name with the same branch or office.
- 4.5 If the balance in your Account falls below £10,000, you will not receive interest (whether at our standard rate or introductory bonus rate) on your Account. Subject always to conditions 5, 7 and 8, interest will start to be paid again (on the whole balance) if the balance is restored above that limit.
- 4.6 See condition 7 below for information about withdrawals and transfers from the Account.

5. Introductory Bonus

Any introductory bonus earned on your Account will be paid subject to the deduction of all applicable taxes, if any, at the appropriate rate.

- 7.3 Your Account should not become overdrawn without prior arrangements having been made with us, nor should the Account operate in excess of any agreed borrowing limits. By following instructions which result in your Account becoming overdrawn, we are not giving our permission for your Account to be overdrawn.

8. Closure of the Account

- 8.1 You can close your Account at any time. You may do this by giving us at least one month's written notice in accordance with paragraph 9 of the accompanying Payment Services Schedule. Any interest earned up to Account closure (less any interest deducted in respect of applicable taxes under condition 4.4) will be applied to your Account.
- 8.2 We may close your Account at any time in accordance with paragraph 9 of the Payment Services Schedule. We may do this without giving you a reason but will normally give you at least two months' written notice before doing so. Please refer to the the accompanying Payment Services Schedule for more details.
- 8.3 In the event of your death, the balance on the Account will normally be paid to your estate and the Account closed. For Accounts held in joint names please see condition 11.1h.

9. Changing interest rates

We may change our interest rates (excluding the introductory bonus rate) and inform or tell you of such change in accordance with the provisions of paragraph 6 of the accompanying Payment Services Schedule.

10. Other changes to the Agreement

We may change any other terms of the Agreement (other than an interest rate change) and notify you of such change in accordance with the provisions of paragraphs 6, 7 and/or 9 of the accompanying Payment Services Schedule.

11. Joint Account customers

- 11.1 If two or more of you are party to the Agreement, the following terms apply:
 - a. Unless and until we receive written notice from one or more of you instructing us to the contrary, any of you can give us instructions (whether in person, in writing or via International PhoneBank or Internet Banking (if you are registered for these services)) independently of the others on your joint Account. This means any one of you can, for example, withdraw all or any money on the Account without the knowledge of the others, close the Account or end a service, and apply for other services which are covered by the Agreement and which are available on your joint Account. We will not normally make enquiries about the purpose of any payment or instruction or confirm the instructions with the other joint Account customers.
 - b. Each of you is separately responsible for complying with the terms of the Agreement. If any one of you does not comply with the terms, we can take action against any or all of you alone or together.

- c. We may give any information about your joint Account and the payments on it to any one of you. We can act on information about you which any of you gives us.
- d. We may address all correspondence to the first named party on the Account application form. A notice we send to one of you will count as notice to all of you.
- e. If we open an Account for you jointly and you later wish to remove someone from the Account, add another person to the Account or authorise someone else to operate the Account, you must all apply to do so.
- f. If we become aware of a dispute between you, we may take steps to prevent any of you giving instructions or using the Account individually until the dispute is resolved.
- g. When the Agreement ends (or your Account is closed) we may pay or transfer money we hold for you under the Agreement or in the Account to any one of you.
- h. If any of you die, we will normally pay all money held in the Account to or to the order of the remaining joint Account customers and may act on their instructions.

12. Other terms

- 12.1 If you are not happy with your Account, within 14 days of opening your Account you may close your Account and transfer your funds to another account either held with Lloyds Bank or another bank. Please note that you will earn interest at our standard rate only on your deposit during the 14 day period. Reasonable administrative charges may apply to the closing of your Account during this period.

In order to cancel, please write to Lloyds Bank Corporate Markets plc, 9 Broad Street, St. Helier, Jersey JE2 3RR.
- 12.2 We will send you a statement showing transactions on your Account in accordance with paragraph 7 of the accompanying Payment Services Schedule.
- 12.3 We will send you a duplicate statement on request. There will be a reasonable charge for this which you will be notified of at the time of your request. This may be deducted from your Account.
- 12.4 You must tell us if your name or contact details change. If you do not tell us, we will go on using the details you last gave us, and we will not be liable if we fail to contact you or if we send confidential information to your former contact details. We may charge you our reasonable costs if we need to trace you.
- 12.5 We are only liable for direct loss to you, and then only if caused by our breach of contract or negligence. We are not liable for indirect loss or costs (for example, loss of business, loss of opportunity, loss of profit, or any type of special or consequential loss). In addition to the other terms and conditions where we exclude or limit liability, we are not liable for losses or costs (whether direct or indirect) caused by or arising from:
 - a. any failure, delay, interruption, error or problem with another system or network or transmission link or with data processing, or any mechanical breakdown of equipment or failure of power supplies, not being directly our fault; or
 - b. any period of essential maintenance, critical change, repair, alteration or failure of computer systems or networks; or
 - c. any industrial dispute or action; or
 - d. anything beyond our reasonable control or that of our agents or sub-contractors.
- 12.6 Nothing in these Terms and Conditions will exclude or restrict any duty or liability which we may have or owe to you, or which we are not allowed to limit or exclude, under any applicable law or regulation.

- 12.7 Neither the funds nor your rights in the Account may be:
- assigned or transferred by you to anyone else; or
 - given or promised by you as security for financial liability to someone else;
- unless we agree to this in writing.
- 12.8 You agree that, in addition to any general lien or similar right which we may have, we shall have a right at any time, without notice to you, to combine or consolidate all or any accounts in your name (including, without limitation, those in joint names) and to set off or transfer any sums standing to the credit of any one or more of the accounts against any of your liabilities to us.
- 12.9 If we consider the funds in the Account are or may be subject to conflicting claims, we may in our absolute discretion take such steps as we consider necessary including, without limitation, the taking of professional advice and making an application to a court of competent jurisdiction, and we shall not be liable for complying with the order of any such court. You agree that, pending resolution of any conflicting claim, we shall have the right to refuse to pay or deliver all or any part of the funds in the Account to you and to charge you for all costs associated with taking any steps to resolve or deal with such claims or to protect our interests.
- 12.10 You agree that we may assign or transfer our rights or obligations under these Terms and Conditions at any time upon giving you 30 days' notice.
- You agree that we may disclose to a prospective assignee or transferee or any other person who may propose entering into contractual relations with us in relation to the Agreement such information about you as we consider necessary and you hereby unambiguously and explicitly consent to such disclosure.
- 12.11 If one, or part of these Terms and Conditions becomes invalid or unenforceable in any way under any applicable law, this will not affect the validity of the remaining terms in any way.
- 12.12 The Agreement will be governed by and interpreted in accordance with the laws of Jersey and the Jersey courts shall have non-exclusive jurisdiction over any proceedings in connection with any disputes in relation to the Agreement. By signing the Account application form, you agree that any dispute may be resolved by the courts in Jersey.

Notes:

- To ensure security for our customers and staff, and to help maintain service quality, some calls may be recorded and monitored.
- When Lloyds Bank transfers funds overseas by electronic transfer, it is unable to guarantee receipt of the funds by the beneficiary within a specific time frame. While every effort is made to ensure that funds are delivered within four banking days of the value date of transfer, delivery of the funds may be delayed as a result of overseas banking systems, or of complications in the routing of payments. In normal circumstances, it will not be possible to cancel a payment instruction once the funds have been transmitted overseas but at its discretion Lloyds Bank will endeavour to request a refund of the funds. If this is successful, the customer's Account will be credited net of incidental expenses and with the value date on which Lloyds Bank received the funds. In the case of Lloyds Bank Corporate Markets plc, these Notes are subject to the provisions contained in the accompanying Payment Services Schedule.
