

Insurance schedules will only be acceptable if supporting evidence is provided showing the schedule is related to the renewal.

If the renewal notice is not for the vehicle you have insured with us then we also need confirmation that the policy is no longer active. This is because NCD can only be used on one vehicle at a time.

The renewal notice needs to provide information about any claims and losses.

Renewal Invitation

Insurance Company

About you

Name:	Mr Test Test	Policy number:	123456
Address:	1 Test Street Test TT1 1TT	Renewal date/expiry:	01/01/2014

About the car

2004 Nissan Micra SE 1240cc 3dr

Registration:	ABC123	Use:	Private, no commuting
Mileage:	4000 miles a year	Cover:	Comprehensive
Parking:	Drive
Modified:	None

About the driver

Main driver:	Mr T Test
DOB:	01/01/1970
Licence:	Full UK – 9 or more years
Occupation:	Retired
Other car use:	Yes
Claims:	None
Losses:	None
Convictions:	None
No claims discount:	9 years

Renewal invitations must show the name of the insurer.

The proof must not have expired more than 2 years ago.

The no claims discount must be for the main/regular driver.

The proof must give the no claims discount in years or percentage.