Home Insurance cover comparison

Home Insurance Select comes with three levels of cover; Bronze, Silver & Gold.

Below is a breakdown of each level of cover and the limits that apply.

If you are a landlord, you cannot choose Silver or Gold cover.

Your quote or Policy Schedule will show the cover you have chosen, the limits and amount you will need to pay if you make a claim.

Buildings insurance

This covers the structure of your home and its outbuildings. This includes your roof, walls, windows and ceilings. It also includes permanent fixtures like fitted kitchens and bathrooms. It covers you against damage caused by things like fire, flood and storm, as well as subsidence and vandalism.

Specified items cover

We need to know about items worth more than £2,000, other than home appliances, and furniture which isn't antique. You'll need to contact us if you have any items, such as laptops, TVs, jewellery or bikes which individually cost more than £2,000.

You can also choose to cover any specified items in the home, or both in and away from the home.

Any specified items will be included as part of your overall contents sum insured amount.

Items worth more than £2,000 individually	£20,000 individual item limit
	£50,000 total specified item limit

Legal expenses cover

This cover provides expert help when you need legal support and covers things like employment disputes, personal injury and clinical negligence.

Legal expenses	Not available	£50,000	£50,000

Optional cover

You can choose to add extra cover for an additional cost.

Away from home cover

We cover things like rings, watches, bikes and laptops whenever you take these things with you outside your home. You're covered if they're lost or stolen, or accidentally damaged if you have this cover. This includes cover for students' contents when in university halls of residence and other student accommodation. Students' contents are also covered for damage caused by things like fire, smoke, storm or flood.
