Lloyds Limited Access Saver account conditions

These Limited Access Saver Special conditions give key information about your account. Please read them with the Personal Banking Terms and Conditions and Banking Charges. Both documents form part of our agreement with you.

The Limited Access Saver is an account for people wanting to save £1+. It lasts for a year. It's designed for those who don't expect to make more than 2 withdrawals in the account year. You'll have instant access to your savings, but if you make 3 or more withdrawals you will earn interest at a lower rate from the month of your 3rd withdrawal to the end of the account year. The account pays interest at a variable rate.

Deposits and withdrawals

You can pay in:

- by transfer from another account, either as a one off or to save regularly; or
- through one of our branches with a counter. If you pay cash in pounds at a branch with a counter, it will be added to your account immediately and you can use it straight away. The counter service may not be available if there is an alternative option available to complete your transaction.

If you make 3 withdrawals or more, the interest rate you earn from the month of your 3rd withdrawal will be lower. Please see the section on Interest.

It's important you keep track of how many withdrawals you make.

You can take your money out straightaway:

- by transfer to another account held in your name; or
- through one of our branches with a counter. The counter service may not be available if there is an alternative option available to complete your transaction.

You can use our mobile banking app or online banking. You can also call us or come into a branch with a counter. The counter service may not be available if there is an alternative option available to complete your transaction.

Interest

We pay variable rate interest – this means your interest rate may change while you have the account.

Your interest rate will also depend on the number of withdrawals you make in a year.

- As long as you don't make any more than 2 withdrawals in the account year, you'll earn the higher Limited Access Saver interest rate.
- If you make 3 or more withdrawals in the account year you'll earn the lower Limited Access Saver interest rate from the month of the 3rd withdrawal to the end of the account year.

We may have different interest rates, depending how much you save.

We pay interest monthly, on the same date each month as you opened your account.

If the day we're due to pay your interest isn't a working day, we'll pay it on the next working day. We'll also include interest for the days in between.

We pay your interest into your account, or you can ask us to pay it into another Halifax, Bank of Scotland or Lloyds current or savings account in your name.

To check the current interest rate, based on your account balance and the number of withdrawals you've made, see the interest rates leaflet or our website.

To keep track of your withdrawals and interest rate:

- the account year starts on the date you opened your account or changed it to a Limited Access Saver and ends on the anniversary of account opening, or if that is a non-working day on the next working day. You'll have an unlimited number of withdrawals after your account changes following maturity; and
- we work out the interest rate for any month on the same date in the month as you opened your account. For example, if you opened your account on 15 January and made your 3rd withdrawal on 29 September, you'll get the lower rate from 16 September to the end of the account year.

Account information

Normally we provide statements monthly. We may not do this if there aren't any payments from your account.

You can choose to have statements less often but we'll always provide at least one in your account year.

You can also check your account using our app or online banking.

Maturity

We'll get in touch before the end of the term, to give you details of your options.

If you don't do anything, then on the working day after it matures your account will automatically change to a Standard Saver. After this the Standard Saver interest rate and account conditions will apply to your savings.

You'll have instant access and we'll send you full details before the change. If you keep your savings in the Standard Saver, we'll take you having agreed to the new account conditions.

Bear in mind

If your Limited Access Saver is held jointly, you can make a transfer or ask us to pay your interest to a Halifax, Bank of Scotland or Lloyds account held by either of you as well as one you have together.

If your account changes to a Standard Saver, your account number and sort code will stay the same.

You can't make standing orders, direct debits or similar regular payments from your account.

You can only have five Limited Access Saver accounts, either just in your name or jointly.

The Limited Access Saver is a restricted savings account – this affects how and when we tell you about changes we make to your savings account.

We explain more about this in the Personal Banking Terms and Conditions and Banking Charges, which also apply to your account.
